

Code of Conduct for Club Members & Guests

All Members and Guests of this Cricket Club will:

Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person within the context of cricket.
Treat everyone equally and not discriminate on the grounds of age, gender, disability, race, ethnic origin, nationality, colour, parental or marital status, religious belief, class or social background, sexual preference, or political belief.

Promote the positive aspects of cricket, for example fair play.

Not condone, or allow to go unchallenged, any form of discrimination if witnessed.

Display high standards of behaviour.

Encourage all participants to learn the Laws and rules and play within them, always respecting the decisions of match officials.

Actively discourage unfair play, rule violations and arguing with match officials.

Recognise good performance not just match results.

Place the well-being and safety of children above the development of performance.

Ensure activities are appropriate for the age, maturity, experience and ability of the individual.

Respect children's opinions when making decisions about their participation in cricket.
Not smoke, drink, or use banned substances while working with children in the club.

Not provide children with alcohol when they are under the care of the club.

Follow ECB guidelines set out in the "Safe Hands - Cricket's Policy for Safeguarding Children" and any other relevant guidelines issued.

Report any concerns in relation to a child, following reporting procedures laid down by the ECB.

* Members and guests include all members and officers of the cricket club and all guests of those members and officers, as well as all individuals who watch/attend/participate/ officiate in matches hosted by the club in whatever capacity.

Code of Conduct for Club Officials and Volunteers

The essence of good ethical conduct and practice is summarised below.

All volunteers must:

Consider the well-being and safety of participants before the development of performance. Develop an appropriate working relationship with performers, based on mutual trust and respect.

Make sure all activities are appropriate to the age, ability, and experience of those taking part.

Promote the positive aspects of the sport (e.g. fair play)

Display consistently high standards of behaviour and appearance.

Follow all guidelines laid down by the national governing body and the club.

Be appropriately vetted, if required

Hold the appropriate, valid qualifications and insurance cover.

Never exert undue influence over performers to obtain personal benefit or reward.

Never condone rule violations, rough play or the use of prohibitive substances.

Always work in an open environment (i.e. avoid private or unobserved situations, and encourage an open environment)

Inform players and parents of the requirements of cricket.

Know and understand the ECB's "Safe Hands - Cricket's Policy for Safeguarding Children". Ensure physical contact is appropriate, necessary and is carried out within recommended guidelines and with the player's full consent and approval.

Not engage in any form of sexually related contact with a young player. This is strictly forbidden, as is sexual innuendo, flirting or inappropriate terms or gestures.

The ECB adopts the Home Office guidelines, which recommend that "people in positions of trust and authority do not have sexual relationships with 16-17 years old in their care".

Attend appropriate training to keep up to date with their role, especially with respect to the safeguarding of children.

Code of Conduct for Youth Members

As a member of Cam Cricket Club, you are expected to abide by the following Youth Section Rules.

All members must play within the rules and respect officials and their decisions.
